

ANNOUNCEMENT: LUMEN V4 2020 is CANCELLED

Observing the continuing deterioration of COVID-19 related mid- and post-pandemic situation in Europe, now strongly affected by economical consequences and leading to cancellation or postponing of many other social and professional events in autumn causing further troubles to make any business trip arrangements, persisting travel ban at many institution, suspension of many international transportation lines, still closed borders and emerging time constraints to safeguard necessary services, with respect to uncertainty of evolution that does not allow to foresee any situation in near or farther future and to guarantee desired level it was decided by Steering Committee and organizers of the conference LUMEN V4 2020, regretly to CANCEL this event in full extent.

Representatives of the four national Lighting Societies of Slovakia, Hungary, Poland and Czechia, appointed members of the standing Steering Committee decided to continue with the series of Visegrad lighting conferences by LUMEN V4 2022 keeping the relay in hands of Slovak organizers. They are promising to come up with new dates soon, letting the conference venue unchanged. Novel information will be routed in due course to broad directory of professionals, target groups and associates via common channels.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Dionýz Gašparovský', is positioned above the printed name.

Dionýz Gašparovský
chairman of the Steering Committee